

Our installation service is one of the finest available. We have the ability and resources to undertake any type of project.

Within our Installation service and drawing from our expertise as dealers in audio visual equipment, we are able to provide a real choice of products to our clients and customers.

We can work from any agreed specifications and we guarantee that all our recommendations will be based on good practice and our depth of knowledge and skill. All our installers are fully trained and certified in their roles ensuring you will always have the very best team on your project.

With the Ko-ach Installation service, you are guaranteed added value in that you get cutting edge design and innovation all incorporated as one package into your solution.